The Nabni Building for Peace Facility is seeking to partner with locally-rooted Non-Governmental Organisation consortia in Syria to contribute to promoting peace and development in the country.

This call in Syria forms part of a wider initiative, across the Middle East North Africa region, that seeks to further the Building for Peace approach in partnership with local civil society organisations. The goal of Nabni is to support conflict-impacted communities in Syria to be peaceful and inclusive through locally-led transformation processes that are built on local people's vision of the future. For further details, please refer to Nabni Website: <https://www.nabni-facility.org/>

The objective of this Call for Concept Notes (CfCN) is to obtain project ideas from Consortia formed by locally-rooted non-profit NGOs to implement projects that are aligned with the Building for Peace approach and Nabni's Theory of Change.
- Call Download and Submission : If you are locally-rooted NGOs interested in applying, please download the CfCN package, free of charge, using the download link available on Nabni Website: <https://www.nabni-facility.org/>
